

Please rule in favor of Indiana's telephone privacy law against the banking and credit card industry to continue to block the invasion of my privacy from unwanted telephone calls. If any business wants to reach me they have the right to use the U.S. mail, but not my constitutional right to telephone privacy.